

Conference 2025

18–21 November
Ahuriri Napier

Abstract Guidelines

Abstract Submissions

Thank you for taking the time to submit an Abstract for the upcoming NZCS Conference 2025. These guidelines will assist you with filling out the online Abstract Submission Form.

Please take a moment to read through before submitting your Abstract for consideration.

Key Dates

- Call for Abstracts open 10 June 25
- Abstracts close 30 July 25
- Candidates will be advised outcome by: 30 August 25

2025 Conference Themes

1. Mātauranga Māori/Indigenous knowledge
2. Data collection, monitoring and remote sensing
3. Coastal ecology
4. Resilience and adaptation to climate change
5. Port and coastal engineering
6. Coastal hazards and risk
7. Planning and policy
8. Partnering with nature
9. Physical processes

Please consider a maximum of three themes your abstract may be applicable to.*

Presentation Options

Select a presentation that is either: Oral or Poster

Students

Please select 'yes' if the presenting author is a student.

Abstract Content

- Please fill out the abstract template provided and attached to the form submission
- Use APA 7th referencing
- Include all authors credited for the Abstract

- Include a short Bio for each presenter
No more than 200 words*
- There is a one-page limit for the Abstract using the formatting provided in the template
- No figures to be included

Abstract Template

This can be found on the NZCS website and/or you can download it here: NZCS Conf 2025 – Abstract Template

Conference Registrations

- All confirmed presenters will need to register for the conference
- Registrations will open 23 June 25

Important Note

Preparation and supply of any handouts or materials used in presentations is the responsibility of the authors. As a commitment to attend and support the NZCS Conference 2025, accepted presenters are expected to register and pay for attending the conference. All costs to attend the conference, including the registration fee, must be met by presenters.

For any queries regarding Abstracts please email:
nzcoastalsociety@gmail.com